Yes because:

The school is wonderfully inclusive and all staff are amazing!

My child has excelled at Newlyn School, and I believe this is because of the attention that is paid to each individual child.

Any issues I have had, the school has always dealt with it in the right way.

Newlyn School listen, not just to the children but also the extended family.

I feel it is not only focussed on the education but on their wellbeing.

They have a kind, nurturing staff.

My children have both come on beautifully.

They always welcome you in for a meeting and help parents out.

I have been really pleased with the after-school clubs for my children- they have really helped their confidence.

The staff are friendly, supportive and helpful.

Friendly, caring, kind

The children's welfare and learning is number one.

It is a friendly, warm environment and the staff are all supportive and approachable.

A very good, caring, well-rounded school.

The staff are willing to go the extra mile to make the children feel welcome.

Newlyn School is a lovely school. The staff are wonderful and supportive to both children and parents.

Small enough to know the kids' personalities and individual needs really well and personalise their learning accordingly.

It feels like a family.

Newlyn School is a happy school with a positive atmosphere and wonderful, supportive staff.

My child loves it and it's a nurturing school.

A great school all round.

It feels like a family.

It is a lovely local school where the children flourish.

They are great with dealing with problems.

I feel confident that any child that attends Newlyn will always have their needs put first as well as being nurtured for the whole school life.

My child has expressed her happiness about her school environment.

Nice friendly feel but with a good educational focus.

Family friendly community. Welcoming.

Friendly and inclusive
